

Key Requirements & Responsibilities:

3-5 years' experience in a similar role

3rd level qualification in Environmental or equivalent.

Experience with relevant Environmental standards and management systems within the construction industry & across the various sectors e.g. Commercial; Residential; Pharma; DC etc.

Up to date with current legislation & compliance.

Proficient in carrying out environmental inspections and producing risk assessments

Reporting directly to the SHEQ Manager, the successful candidate will be responsible for:

- Ensuring that Environmental management systems are further developed, implemented and maintained.
- Providing advice, guidance, instruction and training in all Environmental matters to the Senior leadership team and where applicable to sub-contractors & the supply chain.
- Providing leadership and coordination of the day-to-day environmental requirements on various project sites
- Carrying out environmental audits and inspections
- Preparing in conjunction with the site teams environmental plans, and other associated site documents.
- Participating in site meetings, report on environmental risks, trends and recommend constructive actions towards continuous improvements.
- Investigating, recording and reporting on any issues as they may arise, ensuring root causes are identified and corrective actions are implemented as necessary
- Developing mitigation plans to off-set future risk and as required
- Identifying new and on-going environmental related training requirements, ensuring all mandatory training is reviewed and delivered on time
- Enforcing relevant policies within the SHEQ department
- Attending regular SHEQ meetings

Strong time management and communication skills are essential to this role as well as computer literacy and the ability to prepare reports and administer necessary paperwork.